NOTICE OF MEETING

The Attorney General's Commission on Racial, Ethnic, Religious and Minority Violence will meet with Attorney General John K. Van de Kamp on Thursday, April 17, 1986, from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m., in the State Bar Association Building, 555 Franklin Street, San Francisco, to present their final report. A press conference will follow, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

The 16-member commission was created by Van de Kamp in May 1984 to conduct a two-year investigation of violence based on discrimination against members of minority communities. Commission members held hearings throughout the state and met with representatives of minority communities — Blacks, Hispanics, Asians, Native Americans, religious group members, lesbians, gay men, the elderly, before preparing their final report.

The report, which contains the commission's findings and recommendations on ways to counter violence against minority communities, will be presented to the Attorney General by the commission's chair, Monsignor William J. Barry of Los Angeles.

The public is invited to attend.

For further information, contact Marty Mercado, Chief, Office of Community and Consumer Affairs, Office of the Attorney General, 1515 K Street, Sacramento (916) 324-7859.
